THE AMERICAN CORNERSTONE INSTITUTE ANNOUNCES FORMER CONGRESSMAN DAVE BRAT AS THE AMERICAN CORNERSTONE INSTITUTE INAUGURAL FELLOW

WASHINGTON – The American Cornerstone Institute (ACI) announced today that former Congressman Dave Brat will join the Institute as an Inaugural Fellow.

“Dave has dedicated his entire career to defending faith, liberty, community, and life,” said ACI Founder & Chairman, Dr. Ben Carson. “We are honored to have Dave join the ACI family to continue his work on behalf of the American people as we work towards securing a more free and prosperous nation.”

“Dr. Brat spent his time in the United States House of Representatives defending freedom and liberty for all,” said ACI CEO Andrew Hughes. “I could not draw up a more perfect individual for the American Cornerstone Institute’s Inaugural Fellow.”

Dr. Brat served in the United States Congress for Virginia’s 7th District. He served on the Budget, Education and Small Business Committees, and Chaired the subcommittee on Economic Growth, Tax and Capital Access.

His knowledge base comes from years of experience in business, as an economic consultant with Arthur Andersen and the World Bank and 20+ years of work in higher education teaching economics and ethics. He worked with the Senate side of the Virginia General Assembly for seven years. He also served as the president of the Virginia Association of Economists and was a member of the Virginia Board of Accountancy. He is passionate about connecting and celebrating the long history between the life of the mind and the Christian tradition.
